2020 Facilities, Lodging & Amenities Rates Guide

PA State Sales Tax (6%) will be charged on taxable items. If your organization has Pennsylvania Tax Exemption status, please contact the Camp Office for an exemption certificate.

Facilities & lodging at Roxbury Holiness Camp are limited to the use of groups, retreats and church family functions. Tax law limits our ability to rent our cabins and dorms to individuals that do not fall within the restrictions of the law. The RV park, however, is open to everyone.

NOTE:

- Not all items are tax exempt.
- Credit Card payments will incur an additional 3% charge.

Facility & Lodging Use Guidelines

- Put trash in proper receptacles
- Leave areas of use clean and ready for the next user
- Report ANY damages: upon arrival or as they occur
- Return equipment and furnishings to their place of origin
- Help us conserve energy by:
  - Turning off lights
  - Keep doors and windows closed when heat or air conditioning is running
  - Do not leave faucets, fountains or water taps running without need
- Pets are not allowed in any building

Lodging:

- Most cabins are privately owned and are available by consent of the cabin owners, please respect and honor what they provide by taking good care of the cabins you rent. Do not take furnishings or supplies from one cabin to another.

Before departure:

- The meeting facilities and lodging areas should be clean and ready for your use. If they are not, contact staff before you move in. It is your responsibility to leave the following areas clean and ready for the next guest group:
  - Meeting areas
  - Cabins & dorms
  - Legacy Retreat Center
- The Byers Conference Center is a different style of lodging and you are not required to clean your bed and bathrooms before departure. Kitchens and meeting rooms should be cleaned, swept and mopped and furniture returned to its original positions.
